CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The efforts to serve on the part of the church for the last two weeks have been encouraging and real help. The attendance and spirit of the Lord's Day services have been fine and the fellowship in giving excellent. The reports in the Annual Business Meeting the 7th inst. showed an actual advance over last year's work. The treasurer's report showed a real increase in the weekly offerings over last year with all bills due, paid and a nice balance on hand. We were all proud of the Charity Committee. They reported some real work done and plans for a greater work. The Charity Committee receives five per cent of all the public collections of the church. Although not as perfect, nor as they should have been, the records of all departments were better and showed interest and a desire for system. The Annual election of officers resulted in electing the following persons for one, two and three years: Elders—A. B. Ross, William Willis and William Dyson; Deacons, A. J. Lewis, I. N. Toney, A. G. Nelson, T. E. Hayes, W. H. Burton, Irvin Cushman, M. F. Stevens and Samuel Barnes—Treasurer, William Dyson, Clerk—W. H. Burton. Heads of Departments: Bible school, Mrs. M. A. Alphin; Aid Society, Mrs. Anna Lewis; Missionary Society, Mrs. Ethel Dyson; C. E. Society, J. H. Cooper; Choir, Mrs. Cornelia Scott; Brotherhood, L. Martin. The committees are being appointed. Mrs. Inyard entertained the Aid Society at Mrs. Casaway's, 1901 E. 24th. They met last week with Mrs. J. H. Miles 2456 Euclid. The attendance at both meetings was good and all enjoyed the refreshments served. The Brotherhood had two good meetings. Plans were made for the Annual Banquet January 22. Next Sunday at 11 a. m. the pastor will discuss "How the Church can Render a Greater Service". At 7:30 p. m. "What is Salvation?" All are welcome.

Come out and bring your children that they may take Christ in their youth and make Christians that will hold fast to the church of tomorrow. "The Perfect Peace of Mind, how Obtained" was the text the pastor, Rev. Horsey selected Sunday morning and delivered to an attentive audience of worshippers. From the language of the text we find that by accepting Christ we will love our neighbor and feed him with the grace of God and He will keep your mind in perfect peace. Mrs. Sadye Wyatt and Mrs. D. The Who-So-Ever-Will Club, under the leadership of Mrs. O. Sewell, one of the most energetic and successful workers in the church, has broken the record by selling one hundred of the best seats in the house. The Cast who will play "Under the Shadow of a Crime" is composed entirely of Ebenezer talent. They have had several months training and will stand the test of the most severe critics. Dr. C. Lloyd Peebles and Mrs. Ethel Shores play the leading roles, while Mrs. Mable Grant, Mr. Charles Allen, Mrs. Beulah Walker, Messrs. A. C. Gilliam and J. F.
